Notes:

Mr. Jamison was born in Middletown, Dauphin co., PA. He learned the trade as a carpenter and traveled considerably during his adult life following the frontier west as it unraveled along the dusty migratory trails. He removed 1849 to Claypool, IN., Ringgold co., IA., and to Salina, NE. His home remained in Kosciusko co., IN. While out in Iowa Mr. Jamison joined the 29th IA Infantry under Capt. Thomas H. Benton under the command of Col. Andrew Johnson. Jamison was appointed chief scout of a group of scouts on duty in Missouri and Iowa. He was engaged in many battles for the next eighteen months against marauding guerillas who infiltrated the territory. Fearing the worst, his wife summoned him home to guard against their own property, but Samuel could not remain inactive while his country suffered. He returned to duty united with Company G of the 29th Iowa Infantry serving until the close of war. He was sent down the Red River and fought at the Battle of Mobile and later Blakely, before being sent west to the Rio Grande. He mustered out in August 1865 at New Orleans his health seriously impaired. He was a dedicated Republican, spent years occupied as a mason, and even became the sheriff in Lincoln, NE before returning home. He owned a 160 acre tract near Lincoln, but the inducements to return back to Indiana were to great.

Mr. & Mrs. John Roberts removed to Arkansas; Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Rowland rem. to California; Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Jamison and Mr. & Mrs. Franklin Jamison rem. to Louisiana.
