Notes:

Jameson might be related to a William Jameson who was listed in the 1800 and 1810 censuses for Beaver co., Pa. William Jameson's land bordered that of Matthias Hook, so a relationship could be possible. In the area, too, was Samuel Jameson. Closed to William's age along with a Matthew and Ann Jameson, an older couple. By the 1820 census, Matthew Jameson had died, and Samuel and William Jameson had migrated to Hardy, Holmes co., Ohio. It was at this time in 1820 that David Jameson resided alongside Hook's old farm in a small town then called Hookstown, named after Matthias Hook.

Mr. Jameson was a shoemaker and dealer of shoes in Winchester, Van Buren co., IA. where he migrated to in 1856. Ann Hook Jameson inherited from her father land on which she and David Jameson resided located on the Ohio River. On July 22, 1865, their son, James Jameson, sold on behalf of the family 29 acres and 60 perches of land bordering the Ohio River for $950.00 to William Davidson of East Liverpool, OH. On September 24, 1867, David Jameson et al. deeded 80 acres and 88 perches from the remaining acreage in Pennsylvania to W. C. Spencer and James Spencer of Beaver co., PA. for $1611.00.

When Mrs. Jamison died in 1869, Mr. Jameson resided with his daughter and son-in-law, William and Isabella Young in Scotland co., MO. where he died. Mr. William Howard was born February 1, 1825, England and died March 18, 1906, Van Buren co., IA.
