EDWARD JAMISON OF BOTETOURT COUNTY, VIRGINIA

[49100-49699]

NOTES

The following material is largely researched by a relative of this family branch, Inis Hurst, of Pulaski, Virginia. She has kindly allowed me also some of the many portraits and pictures that dot her manuscript for inclusion within this history. These, then, are xeroxes, but fairly representative of those she has allowed me to use. *(1)

49100-1 EDWARD JAMISON, b.c. 1725, Ireland died 1787, Washington co., VA. Mr. Jamison married circa 1750/51, poss. Ireland to Mary Hardy, born circa 1730, Ireland and died circa 1787, Washington co., VA. They resided in Botetourt and Washington cos., VA.

Children:

((1-3) b. Ireland; (4) b. Botetourt co., VA)

(1) 49110 John, b. 1751; d. 8/9/1837; m. 1780, Nancy Hayter;

(2) 49111 Jane, b. 1752; m. Thomas Hatton;

(3) 49112 Martha, b. 1760;

(4) 49113 Margaret, b.c. 1771; d.c. 1831; m. 1790, William Clark;

Notes:

Mr. Jamison emigrated 1763 from Ireland and settled, tradition-ally, in York, PA. before removing to Botetourt co., VA. By 1772 he resettled in Washington co., VA. where he died. Little is known of his earlier history, though he had a sister, Mary, who emigrated circa 1769 with her husband, Capt. Robert Buchanan, and they settled down in Glades Spring, Washington co., VA. In 1773, Mr. Jamison was one of the members of the Ebbing/Sinking Spring Presbyterian Church officiated by the Reverend Cummings. Jamison's name can be located in many of the county records from settling boundary disputes(1781), paying his tithables(1782), and land purchases and sellings. In 1784 he transferred a 150 acre tract to his son, John Jamison. His will was dated May 19, 1787 and the estate probated 9/9/1788 and inventoried shortly afterwards. His son, John, received the farm along with the land his father resided upon, plus books and a few other things. He mentions daughters Jane, Martha, and Margaret, and wife, Mary. Son, John, was executor of the will witnessed by Abram Hayter Sr., Abram Hayter Jr., and William Hayter.

One researcher has stated that Edward's parents were Samuel and Jane Moffitt of Ireland. No proof, yet.<sup>(2)</sup>

1. As in other genealogies that have come my way, I have included research of my own to verify and to supplement the ongoing family lineage presented here.

2. Information comes by Steve Jamison, Los Altos, CA., 9/15/1997, correspondence. He also states that the great, great grandmother of his maternal grandmother was Nancy Perry, wife of James Peery of Augusta co., VA. James Peery's mother was Katherine Jamison, daughter of John and Jane (Erwin) Jamison of Augusta co., VA(#40900)
