Notes:

Mr. Jameson{Jamison} came from Botetourt co., VA. According to the Bible Records listed in Ref #11 Robert and his family migrated September 26th, 1786, from Chester co., PA and settled in Botetourt co., VA[11]. The family left Virginia on September 17th, 1798 and settled in Logan co., Ky. He may have had a brother, John Jamison, who was also residing in Botetourt county as well. In Logan county in 1800, there were three men: Andrew Jamison, Robert Jamison, and William Jamison, probably all brothers and all from Botetourt(Rockbridge) county, VA. The Andrew Jamison taxed in 1800 is apparently not the same Andrew Jackson Jamison listed for Robert and Ruth Jamison since he would have been only 13 years old at the time of the 1800 Tax list in which the Andrew Jamison was listed on. Robert Jamison may also have had a brother, John Jamison, residing at the same time in Botetourt co., Va as he. This John Jamison had a son named John Jamison who married Elizabeth Douglass⁽⁴⁾. These marriage returns are as follows:

(page 83, Vol. 4) #785--Reubin Walker and Elizabeth Jamison, widow of John Jamison, deceased, and daughter of John Douglas, bond 12 June 1815. Minister Returns shows marriage 15 June 1815, by John Helms.”[5] Further information provides the following: “John Jamison and Elizabeth Douglas, 24 Feb. 1807; bondsman-James Lockhart; con-John Douglas, father- 24 Feb 1807; wit. James Lockhart & Charles B. Rhoades, minister D. Blain(Lexington, VA.) 5 Mar 1807.”[7] James Lockhart, also of Rockbridge co., VA, was a son of Jacob Lockhart and may be the James Lockhart in Botetourt county providing the bond for marriage. There were two contemporary Robert Jamisons in Botetourt co., VA. Both appear in Rockbridge county, but one settled in Georgia while his brother, William Jamison, also of Botetourt co, migrated to Woodford and Warren counties, KY. This Robert Jamison{Jemison} married Nancy Kirkham, a daughter of Henry, who resided on the James River near Lexington, Rockbridge co., VA. William married Nancy Kirkham, a grand daughter of Henry Kirkham. The point to all this is to separate some of the Jamisons and to point out that in Belleville, Washington co., MO another “John Jamison, b. Virginia came to Black River before 1830 from Kentucky. Purchased land from the government in 1831; rem, to Searcy co., AR shortly afterward.”[8] This John Jamison who stopped in MO before going on to Arkansas, was the one who married Susannah Cape in Cumberland co., KY.

Jamison's will was dated December 12, 1825 and proved February of 1826 in Todd County. Twelve years later a John Jamison, same spelling, had a will proved in 1837, Todd County. In Robert's will mentioned was wife, Nancy; sons-Enos, Sidney, Ephraim, Andrew, Permelia, Presley M., Rose Alinda Ring, and Sarah. Executors, wife & son, Enos; witnesses were Spotswood Smith, S. W. Varney{Carney}, and Richard Bowlding. In 1814-15, Spottswood Smith of Virginia settled in the section near Spring Creek. Contemporary arrivals were Henry Jetter, Squire William M. Terry, William Willis, Samuel Taliaferro, William King, John Roach, Daniel Hasser, Frank Eddington, John P, Balor and Hock Madison. Hon. D. B. Smith was born January 8, 1827, in Todd County, Ky., he is a son of Spottswood Smith and Martha A. (Terry). The father was born December 14, 1800, in Louisa County, Va.; he came to Kentucky in 1816, and two years later settled in what is now Todd County, and at present living with his son.

A Robert Jamison is listed for Logan co., KY. In his will and probate records are the following people:

Maxamilian, son, Juliana Davidson, daughter, son Robert, Elizabeth and Martha, daughters, unnamed Wife. An additional probate records Mason Jamison as administrator of Estate on the following November. These people may not be related[9,10].

The will of Robert Jamison reads as follows:

- (11) 53268 Isaac Webster Jr., b. 7/25/1840; d. 9/27/1863;

Notes:

Mr. Jamison was born in Botetourt co., VA. His parentage had been unknown until recently during this author's research when it was found that he was the son of Robert and Ruth Webster Jamison. Mr. Jamison and his family migrated to Potosi, Washington co., MO some where between 1816-1818 when their first son was born. Mr. Jamison was one of the first "petit jurors" in Washington county, MO. Mrs. Jamison was the administrator of Isaac's estate, both personal and real, on 11/18/1843. Security was given by George Edgar and Mason Frissell. The will left Lots 41, 42, 67, 19, 20, 1, & 2 in Potosi, MO along with additional plots of 142 acres and 32 acres he held.

Francis Jamison and Isaac Jamison Jr were both killed defending the Washington County Courthouse. They enlisted into Capt. Cook's Company E of the 50th Regiment.

The other Jamisons listed in Washington county, MO, Andrew, George(also known as Washington-his middle name), and James Jamison were related to the Jamisons in Harrison co., Ky. These Jamisons descend from George Jameson of Augusta co., VA(see #41311-George Jameson for additional materials).

53214-2 xx ANDREW J. JAMISON, [Robert], was born c.1787, probably Botetourt co., VA, the son of Robert and Nancy Agnes (Edgar) Jamison(53200). Mr. Jamison married September 1, 1813, Logan co., KY, Henrietta Browning, who died in 1837, Hopkins co., KY. where they resided.

Children known:

(Born Logan co., KY.)

- (1) 53280 James Solomon, b. 6/16/1814; d. 12/20/1847; m.c. 1842, Rose Ann Branson;

- (2) 53281 Mary Catherine, b. c. 1815; m.1) 7/14/1832, Moses Baugh{Bugh}; m.2) 4/4/1867, Baker Pidcock;
(6) 53282 xx Andrew Jackson, b.c. 1816; m. 11/26/1838 Martha I. Nourse; res. MO;

Notes:

Mr. Jameson's marriage to Browning may not be his first. Mrs. Jamison was the widow of Isaac Browning of Logan county who left her with three children: Joel, Joshua, & Elizabeth.

Andrew settled in Hopkins county, Ky for a while, but he doesn't appear in the records after 1840.

One recent thought mentioned by another researcher of this family points out that Andrew J. Jamison may have been born more likely around 1810-1826 primarily because his father's will lists Andrew last and one of the ones who needed schooling. If that is the case, then #53282, may have been the son of Robert Jamison which begs the question: Who is the Andrew Jackson Jamison born 1787 and died 1840 in Washington co., MO? In quickly researching this idea, there is in fact an Andrew J. Jamison of Harrison co., Ky who removed to Washington co., MO. This Jamison was born 1787 and died 1840, MO. The Jamisons of Harrison co., Ky were descendants of George Jamison of Augusta co., VA, whose parents, William and Sarah (Collins?) Jameson had settled in northwest Rockbridge co., VA having resided in Philadelphia previously.(See #41300 for further info.) But does this explain the Andrew J. Jamison who married Henrietta Browning in Logan co. in 1813? These two did have children shown above, tho' Andrew J. is listed as speculation.

(1) 53348 James Homer, b. 5/1/1848; d. 5/10/1859;

(2) 53349 George Marshall, b. 9/16/1852;

Notes:

Mr. Jamison was educated as a doctor. In 1849 he went west to California and dug for gold. Returning to Booneville, MO the family removed to Covington, Ky where Marshall worked as a steamboat Captain along the Ohio River. After his wife's death he took his two sons and migrated to Ford, Iowa to be with brothers-in-law, Charles H. Carpenter and James Carpenter. As a millwright he dried his own lumber and designed furniture. Mr. Jamison married again, but there appears to be no children from this marriage. His son, Homer drowned in the South River which flowed through the farm. In 1866, he "was seriously injured when loading a log on to a sled pulled by a five ox hitch. He pushed his son George out of the way and received a blow which resulted in his death after several months.(6)"
